UNITED STATES V. MELVIN JOHNSON, 2:21CR00111

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT
December 13, 2022

On November 4, 2021, Melvin Johnson was sentenced by Your Honor to 13 months custody followed by five years supervised release for committing the offense of Failure to Register as a Sex Offender. On March 9, 2022, Johnson commenced his term of supervised release in the District of Nevada. Johnson has been on supervised release for a little over a year and has had numerous noncompliance issues.

Johnson was directed to attend random drug testing at Tomo facility; however, he failed to report for testing on the following dates: December 6, 2022, November 29, 2022, November 28, 2022, November 19, 2022, November 12, 2022, October 17, 2022, October 15, 2022, October 11, 2022, September 22, 2022, August 26, 2022, August 22, 2022, and August 5, 2022. Even though this officer addressed the missed drug testing at each occurrence, Johnson continues to miss drug testing and last reported for drug testing on October 24, 2022 when he submitted a urine specimen which yielded positive results for methamphetamine and marijuana. Johnson denied this drug use, but the test was confirmed positive for methamphetamine and marijuana by the National lab. Johnson also submitted a urine specimen which yielded positive results for marijuana on October 3, 2022. As to this test, he again denied any drug use, but the test was confirmed positive for marijuana by the National Lab.

Johnson completed a mental health and substance abuse assessment on September 22, 2022 and was scheduled to attend his first session with a counselor on October 21, 2022; however, he was in custody on new charges for domestic battery. Upon his release from custody, Johnson was rescheduled to attend his first session on November 3, 2022 and he arrived late and therefore counselor was unable to meet with him. He was again rescheduled to November 10, 2022 and he failed to attend. Although directed by this officer to contact counselor to get a new date, Johnson has made no attempts to contact counselor to start treatment since November 3, 2022.

On October 17, 2022, Johnson was arrested by Las Vegas Metro PD (LVMPD) for committing the following offenses: Domestic Battery by Strangulation (felony) in violation of NRS 200.485.2; False Statement to Obstruct Public Officer (misdemeanor) in violation of NRS 197.190 and Resist Public Officer (misdemeanor) in violation of NRS 199.280.3. Details of the arrest state LVMPD officers responded to a call for service at a local address and contacted those who had made the call to police. Shaquana Edwards, Johnson's girlfriend, reported Johnson came home asking for money and a ride so he could submit to a pre-employment drug test. She refused and an argument ensued. Edwards asked Johnson to leave. As he grabbed her purse and car keys and attempted to leave, the argument continued outside. Edwards reported they struggled over her belongings and Johnson then grabbed a hold of her neck with his hands and choked her. Johnson eventually let her go and started throwing rocks, breaking three of their windows in the home. As a neighbor tried to stop the physical confrontation between Johnson and Edwards, Johnson grabbed his/her wrist. Johnson eventually let go and got into Edwards's vehicle. Officers arrived and observed three broken windows on the residence, small abrasions/cuts on Edwards' neck, and minor bruising on the wrist of the neighbor; both refused medical attention.

RE: Melvin Johnson

Prob12C

Rev. March 2017

Officers attempted to contact Johnson at the scene, as he was in a vehicle nearby, but he drove away. He then put his vehicle into reverse and attempted to crash into the patrol vehicles. He then fled on foot and was chased through the apartment complex. After a brief foot pursuit, Johnson resisted officers when they attempted to place handcuffs on him. Eventually Johnson was placed under arrest and transported to Clark County Detention Center where he was booked. As officers questioned Johnson about the altercation with Edwards, he admitted he got into a verbal argument with Edwards and then neighbors got involved.

Johnson was approved to reside with his mother at 3851 South Wynn Road, apt 1112 in Las Vegas; however, probation has been unable to verify whether he is living there. On October 17, 2022, this officer was provided information from LVMPD advising the victim of the domestic violence arrest stated Johnson had been residing with her at her residence (at an unapproved address), since being removed from location monitoring. It should be noted that while on location monitoring, Johnson spent most of his time at this residence; however, he would return to his mother's residence nightly due to his curfew. On October 24, 2022, Johnson reported to the probation office to discuss his recent arrest and admitted that he did have an altercation with his girlfriend but denied that it was domestic battery. This officer reviewed his conditions of supervision and directed him to resume calling in for drug testing, and to contact his counselor at Choices to start treatment immediately. He was further provided with information on community service sites and employment readiness programs.

Johnson has failed to complete any hours of community service and he remains unemployed, although this officer has provided him with information and directed him to attend job readiness programs at Goodwill, FIT and One Stop Career Center. Johnson has also failed to pay his special assessment fee of $100. Johnson has also failed to submit monthly supervision reports as directed and last submitted a report in July 2022. Johnson was also ordered to complete a program for domestic violence, and he has provided no proof or verification that he has enrolled in one or completed a program as ordered. Based upon all the violations listed above, this officer respectfully requests a warrant be issued to address all the noncompliance matters incurred while on supervision.

Respectfully submitted,
